

If you have been abused we will:

- Make sure you are supported and protected.

- Talk to everyone involved to find out what happened.

- Take action to stop the abuse happening again.

If we think a crime has happened Surrey Police will investigate.

Keeping YOU safe

at home and in your community

If you suspect a person is at risk of harm
you have a duty
to report it

You have the right to:

We want to stop abuse

Tell someone you trust

- Live free from violence, fear and abuse.

When someone does bad things to you, that make you feel frightened or unhappy this is called abuse.

Abuse is wrong.

- Be protected from harm and from being made to do something you do not want to do.

- Be independent which may involve some risk.

- Say 'no' to anything you do not fully understand.

There are six different kinds of abuse:

- verbal abuse

- physical abuse

- discriminatory abuse

- neglect

- sexual abuse

- financial abuse.

They are all wrong and must be stopped.

What to do if you, or someone you know, is being abused:

- tell someone if you think you, or someone you know, is being abused
- phone one of the contact numbers on the back page.

In an emergency phone 999.

What not to do:

- do not ignore it
- do not promise to keep it a secret
- do not put off doing anything about it.
